

Olympic Expectations: How Optimistic are Canadians about the country's medal performance?

Jack Jedwab

President and CEO, Metropolis Institute and the Association for Canadian Studies

July 2024

Introduction and Methodology

The 2024 Summer Olympic Games (XXXIII Olympiad) officially branded Paris 2024, will officially commence on July 26 and run to August 11 2024 (with some competitions starting on July 24). According to a Leger survey for the Association for Canadian Studies conducted July 12-15, 2024 , most Canadians have high expectations for the performance of Canadian athletes with the expectation that we'll surpass our medal count from the 2020 Olympic games in Tokyo where team Canada finished 11th overall with 24 medals -the country's second best total all-time at a Summer Games. The seven gold medals matched the number won at Barcelona in 1992 and is also Canada's second most ever at one Olympic Summer Games. Eighteen of Canada's medals (75 per cent of the total) were won in women's events with the only men's medals coming in athletics. Some 1784 respondents were surveyed by Leger for the ACS from July 12-15, 2024 and while a margin of error cannot be associated with a non-probability sample in a panel survey for comparison purposes, A probability sample of 1784 respondents would have a margin of error of  $\pm 2.5\%$ , 19 times out of 20

Survey Highlights

- Most Canadians see the country as amongst the top ten in the world when it comes to international sports
- Most Canadians expect the country to rank in the top 10 medal winners in the world at the summer Olympics in Paris
- Canadians divided when asked to choose between summer and winter Olympics
- Most Canadians think how well you perform matters more than whether you win or lose
