

Polling Research

Most Canadians agree that Immigrants make an important contribution to achievements in Canadian sports

Jack Jedwab

April 1, 2025

Methodology

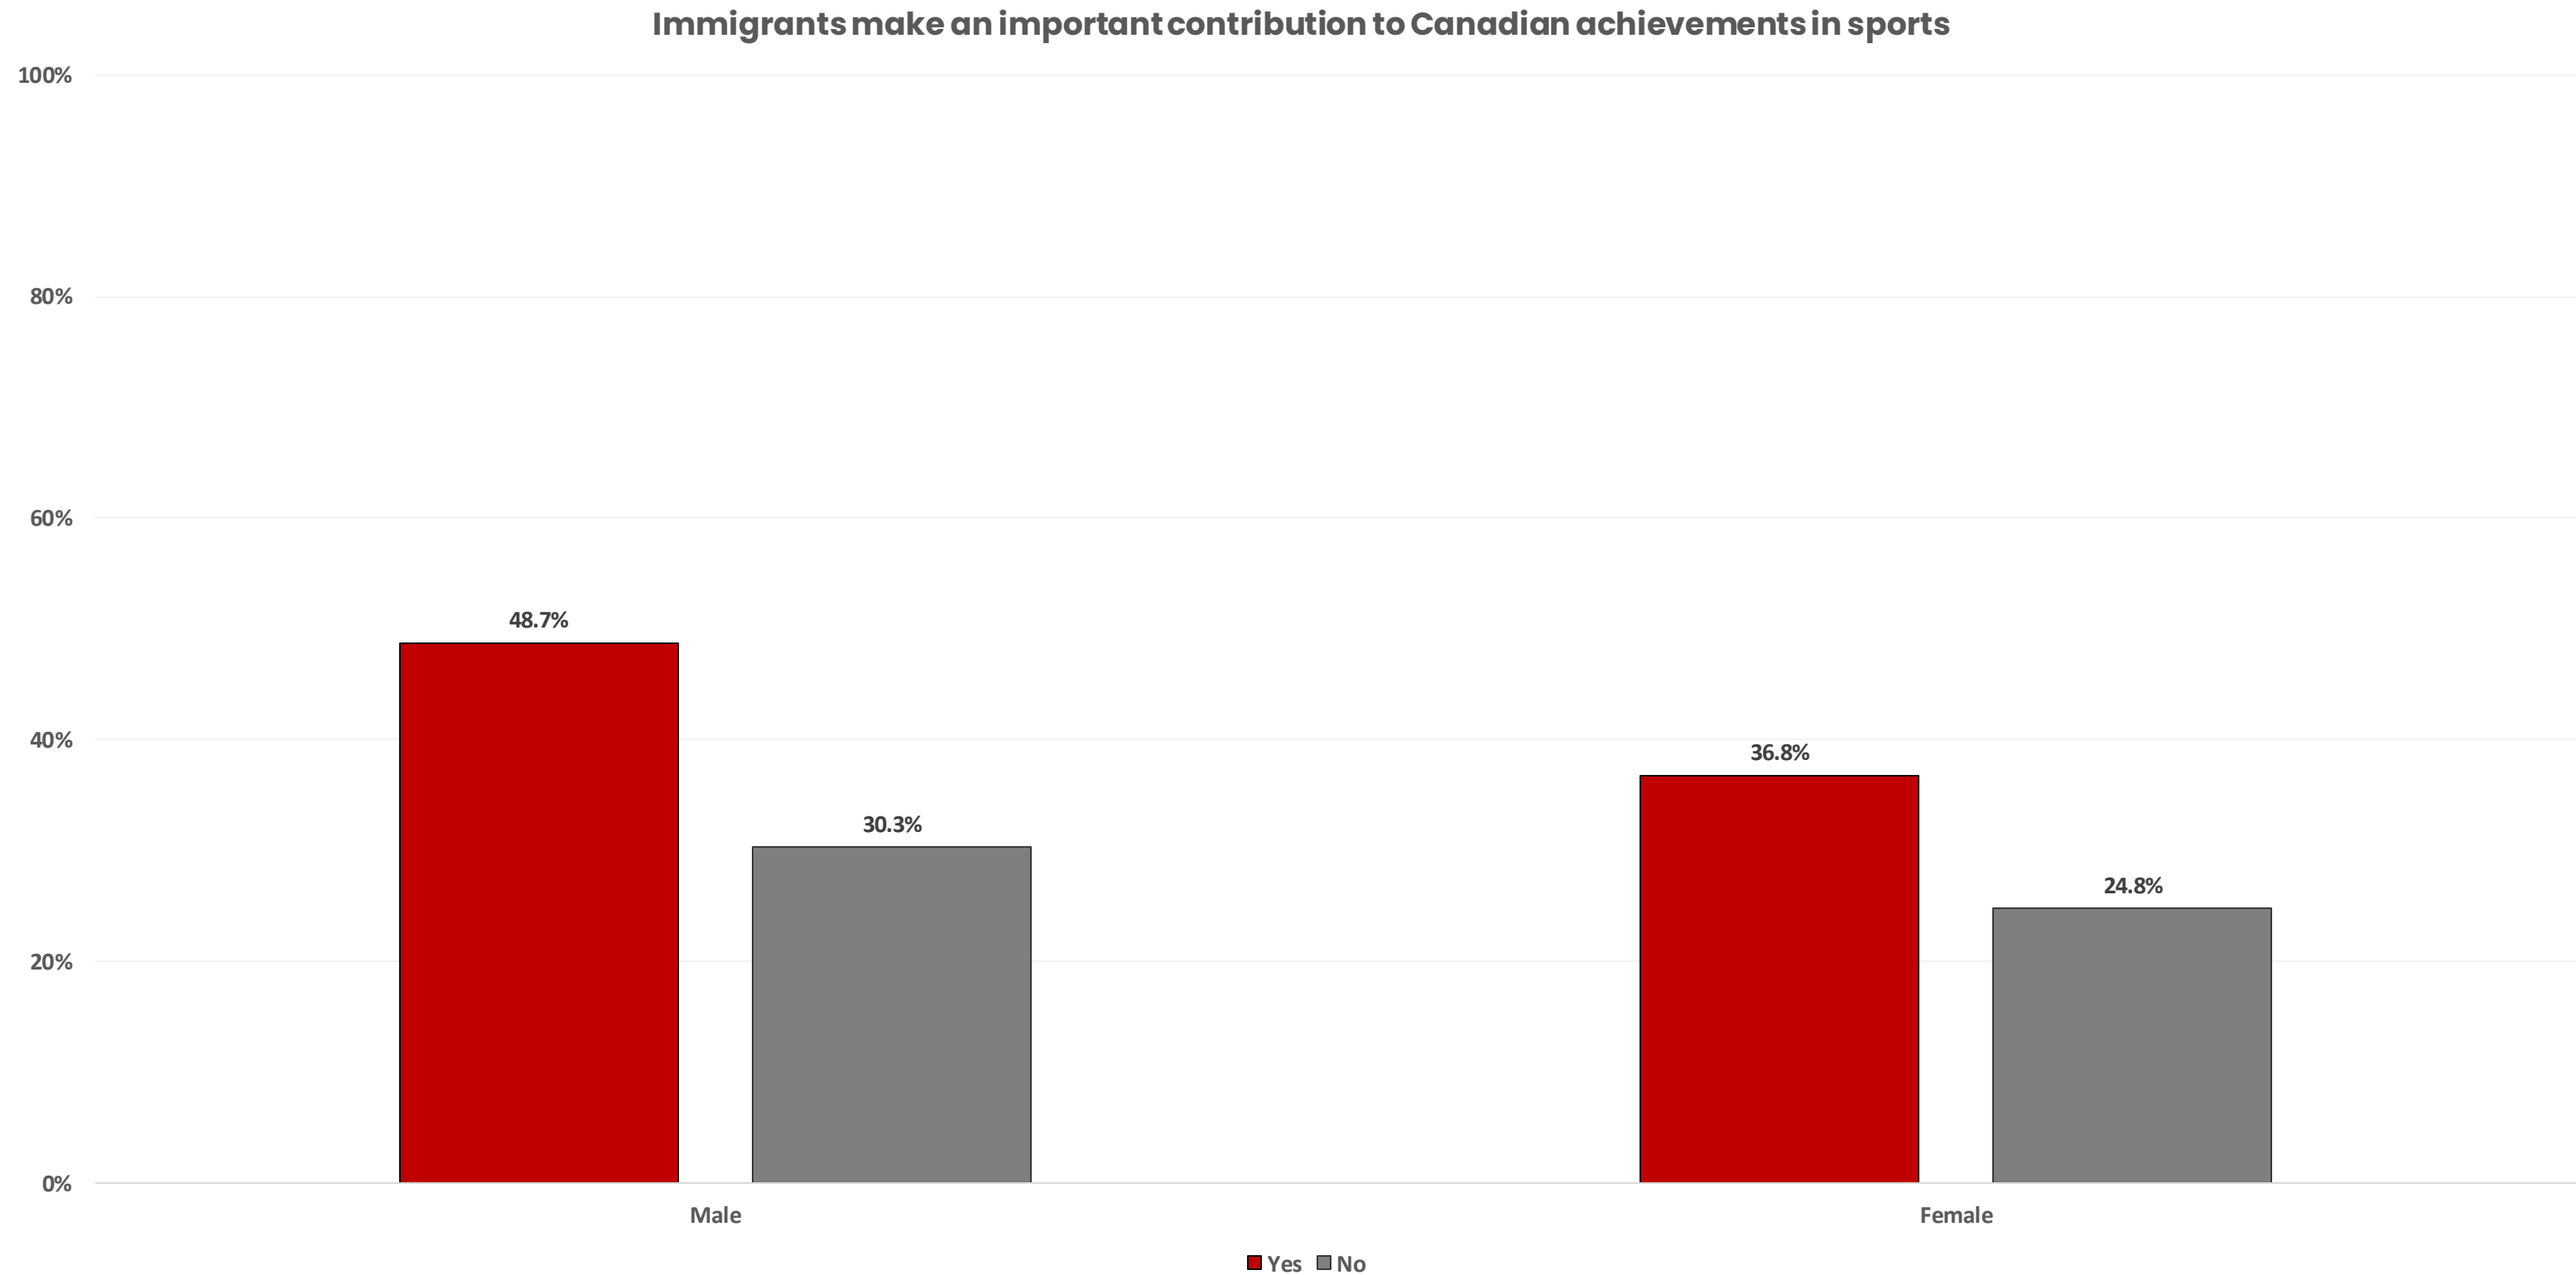

The survey was conducted by Leger for the Association for Canadian Studies with 1539 respondents in Canada over the period March 1 and 2, 2025.

A margin of error cannot be associated with a non-probability sample in a panel survey for comparison purposes. A probability sample of 1539 respondents would have a margin of error of $\pm 2.5\%$, 19 times out of 20.

Majority of Canadians that respond YES or NO agree that Immigrants make an important contribution to Canadian Achievements in Sports

	Immigrants make an important contribution to Canadian achievements in sports. – Please answer Yes, No, or I don't know to the following statements	After distribution of persons saying "I don't know"
Yes	43%	61%
No	27%	39%
I don't know	30%	-----

Nearly one in two Canadian men agree that Immigrants make an important contribution to Canadian Achievements in Sports

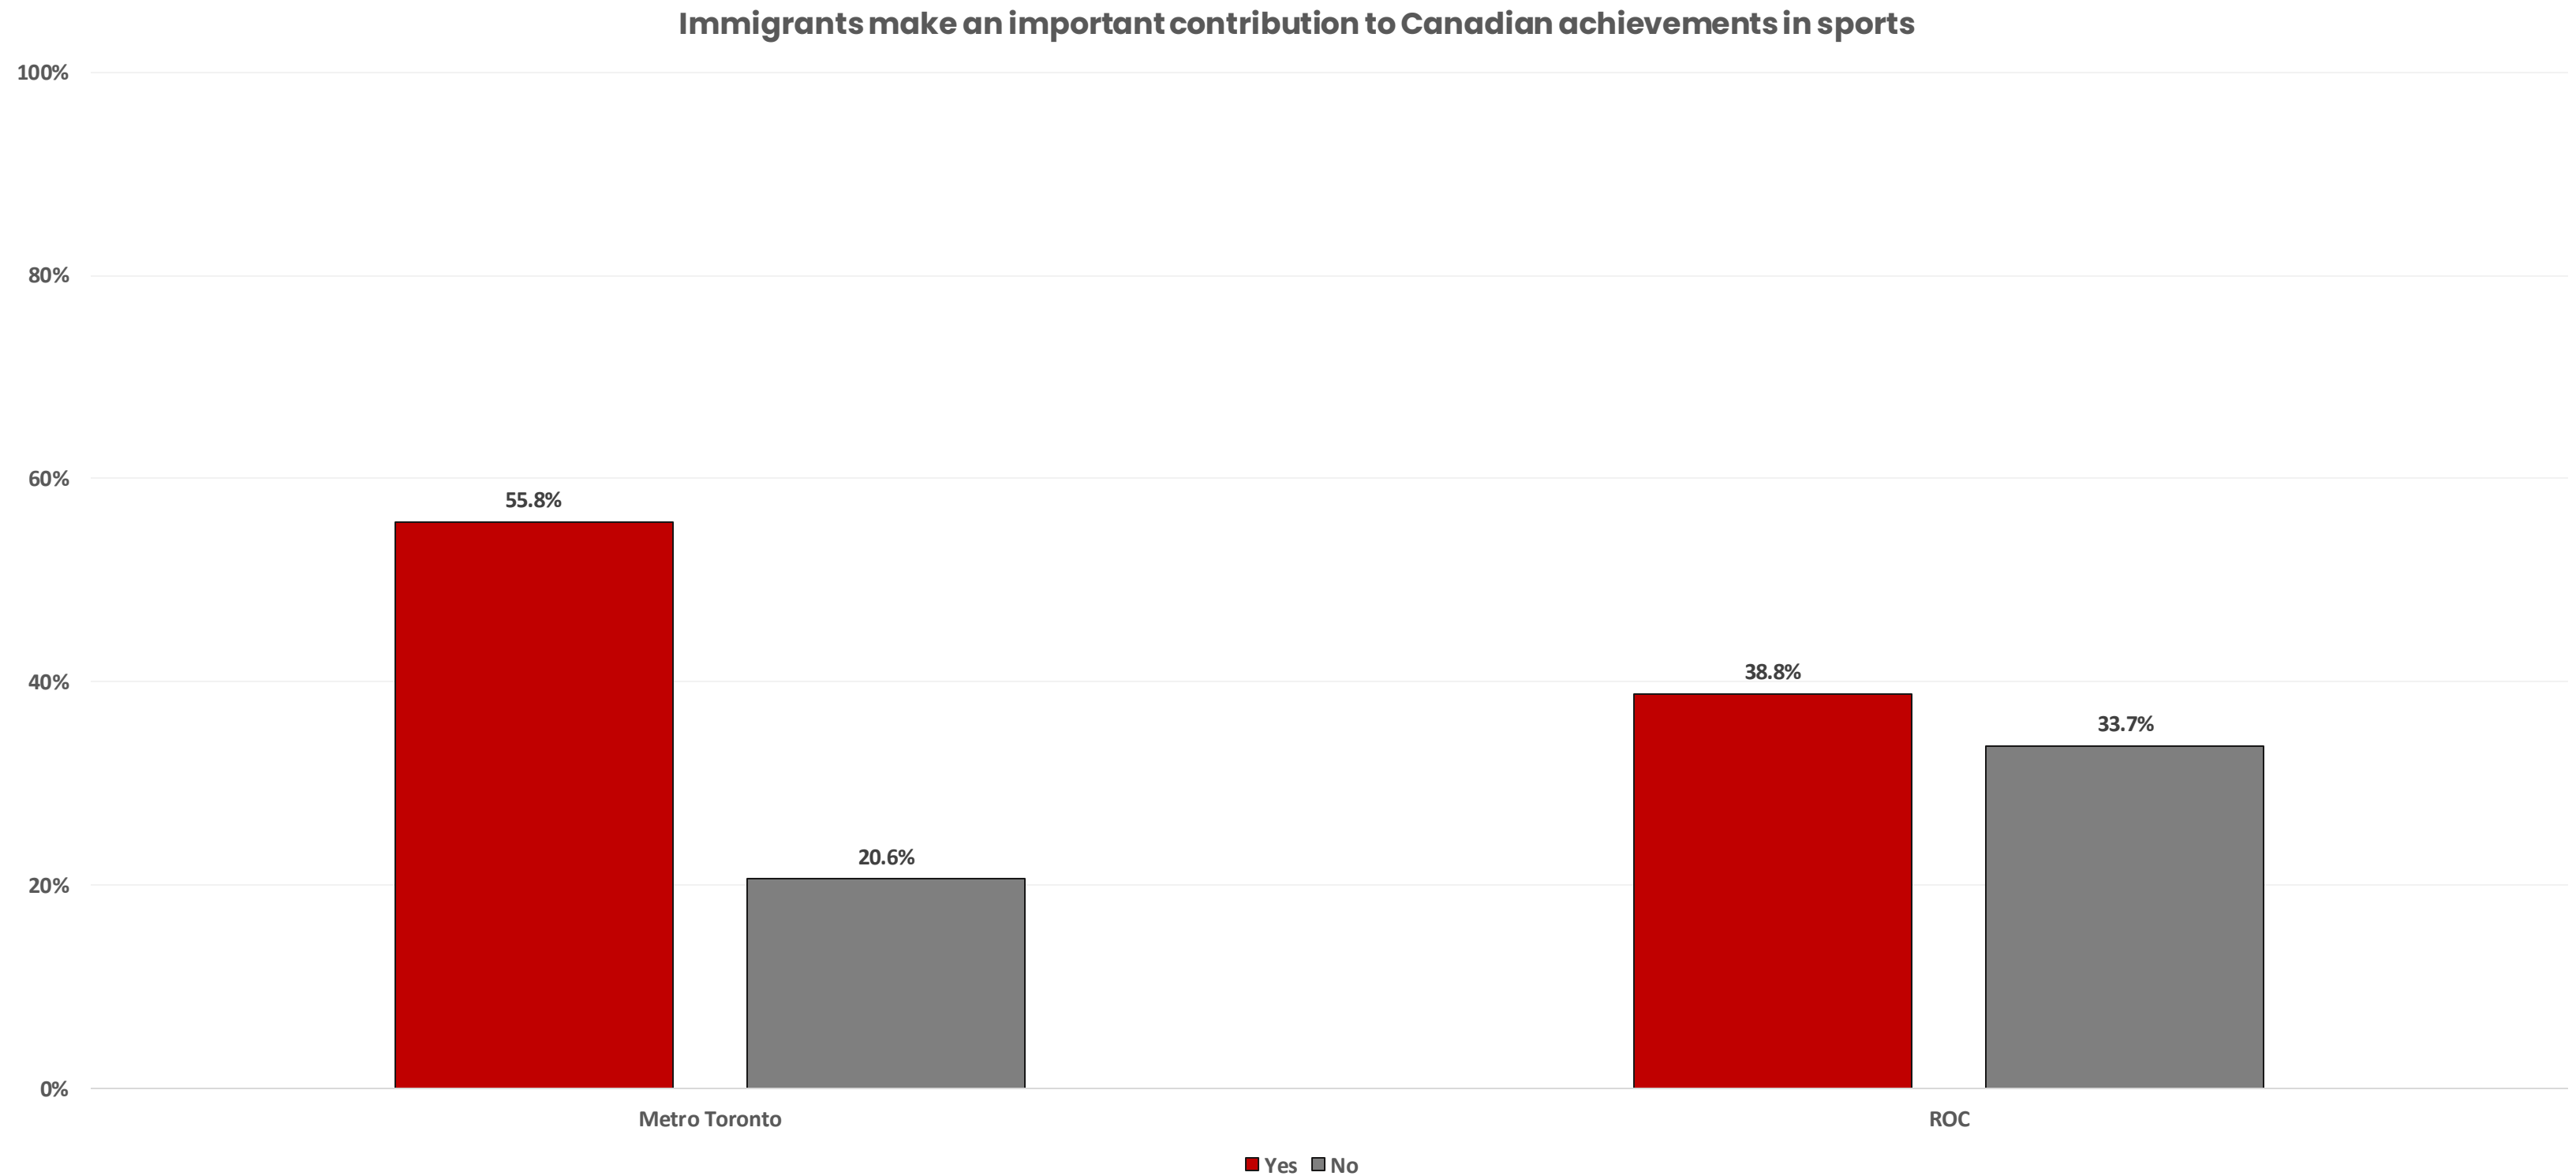

Canadians over 55 are almost twice as likely to acknowledge that Immigrants make an important contribution to Canadian Achievements in Sports

Immigrants make an important contribution to Canadian achievements in sports

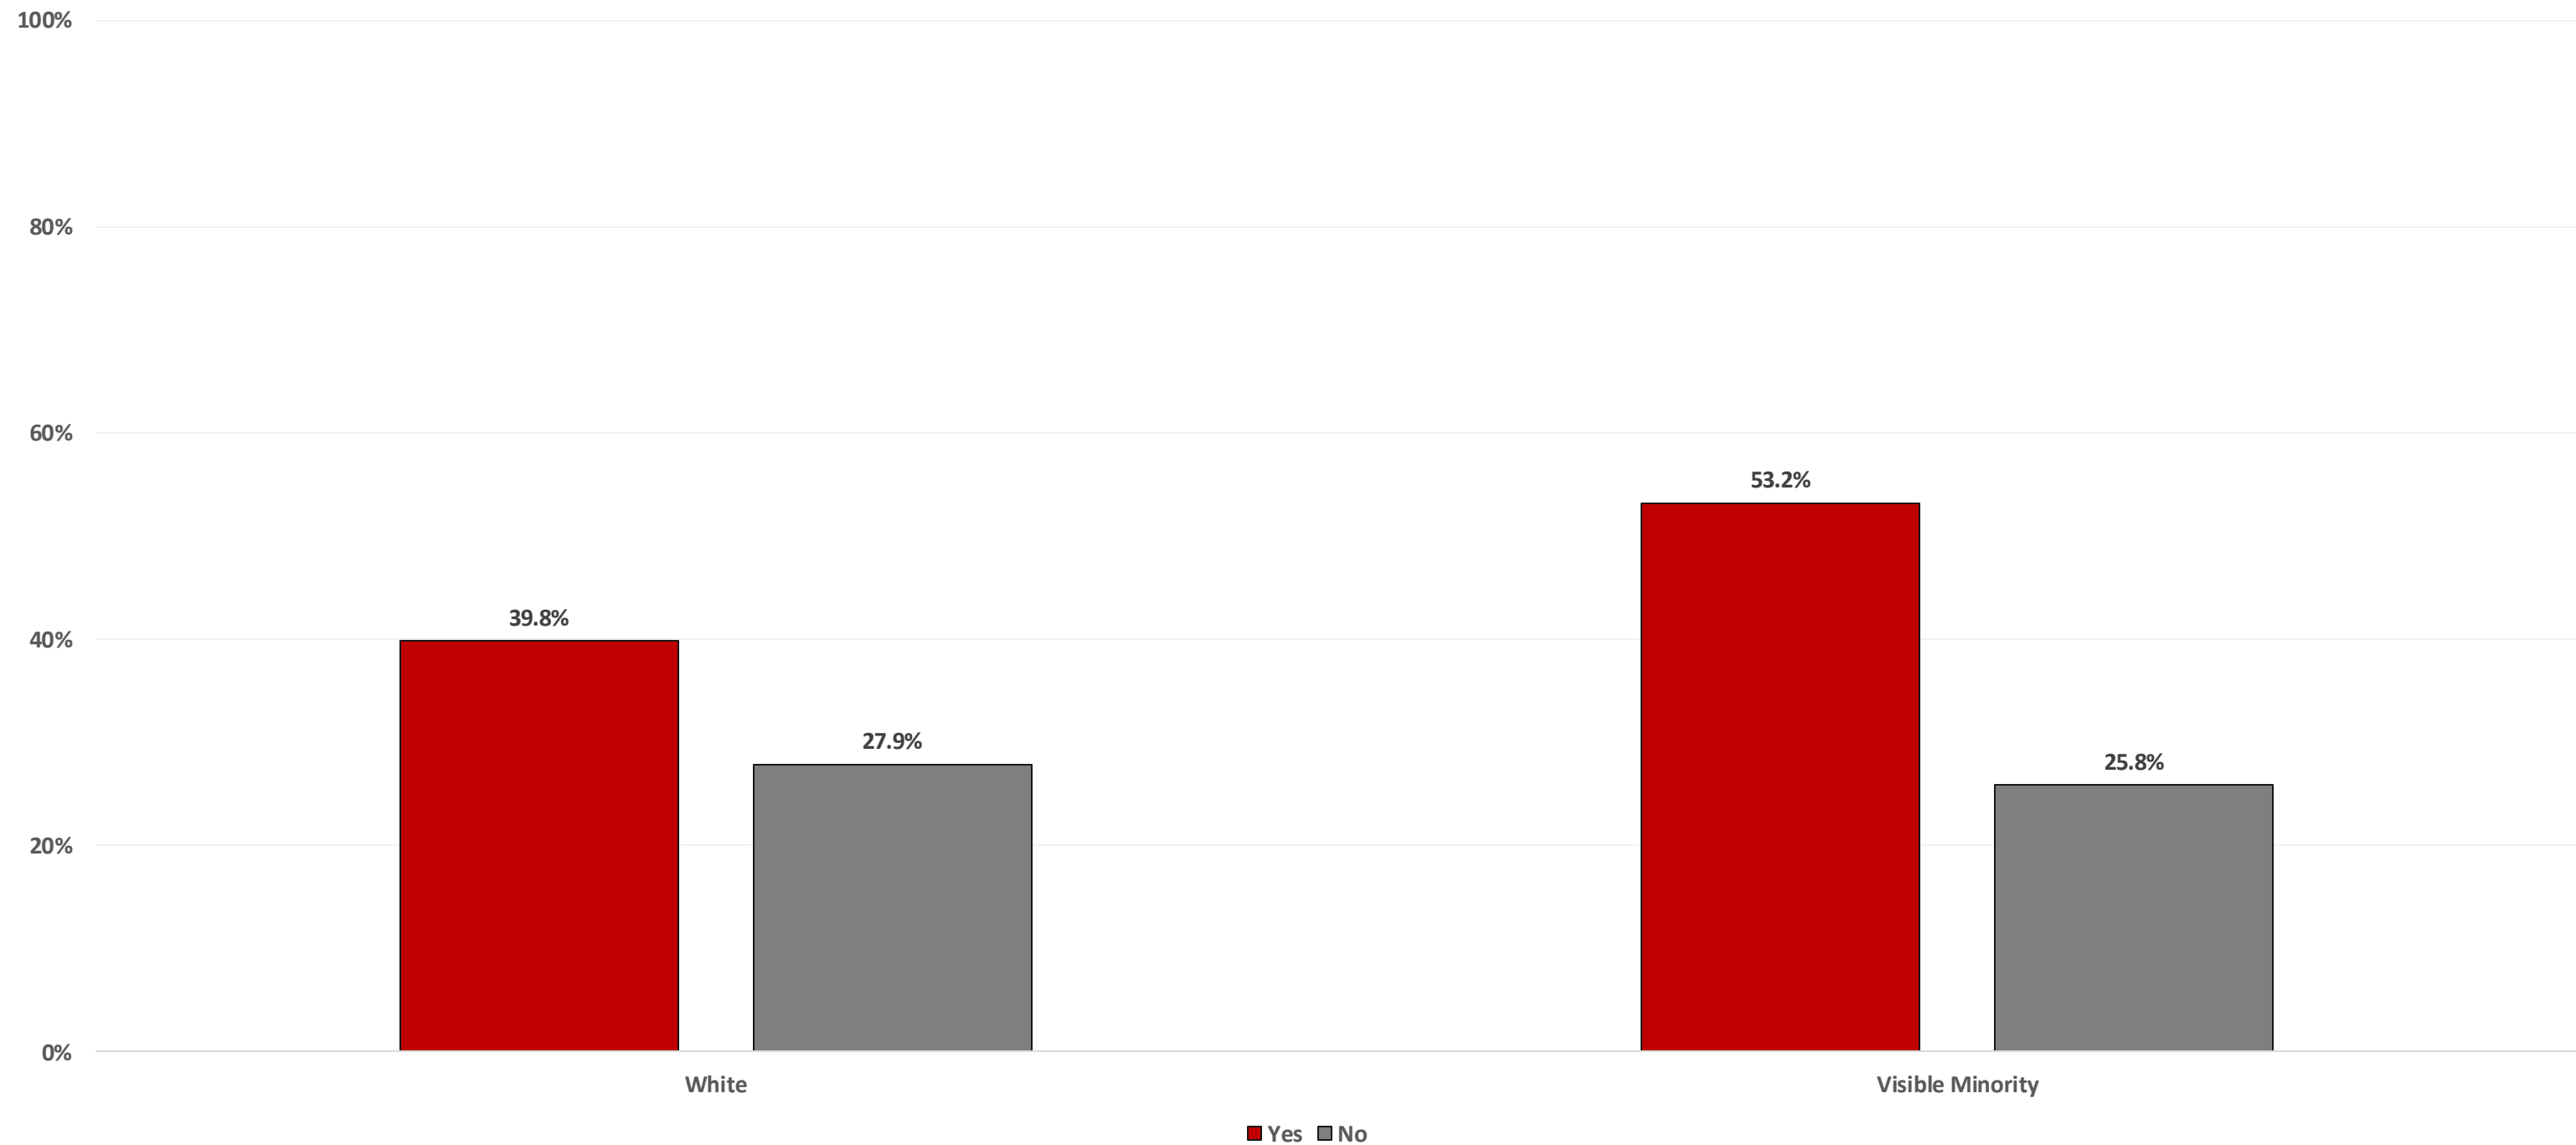

A majority of Torontonians agree that Immigrants make an important contribution to Canadian Achievements in sports

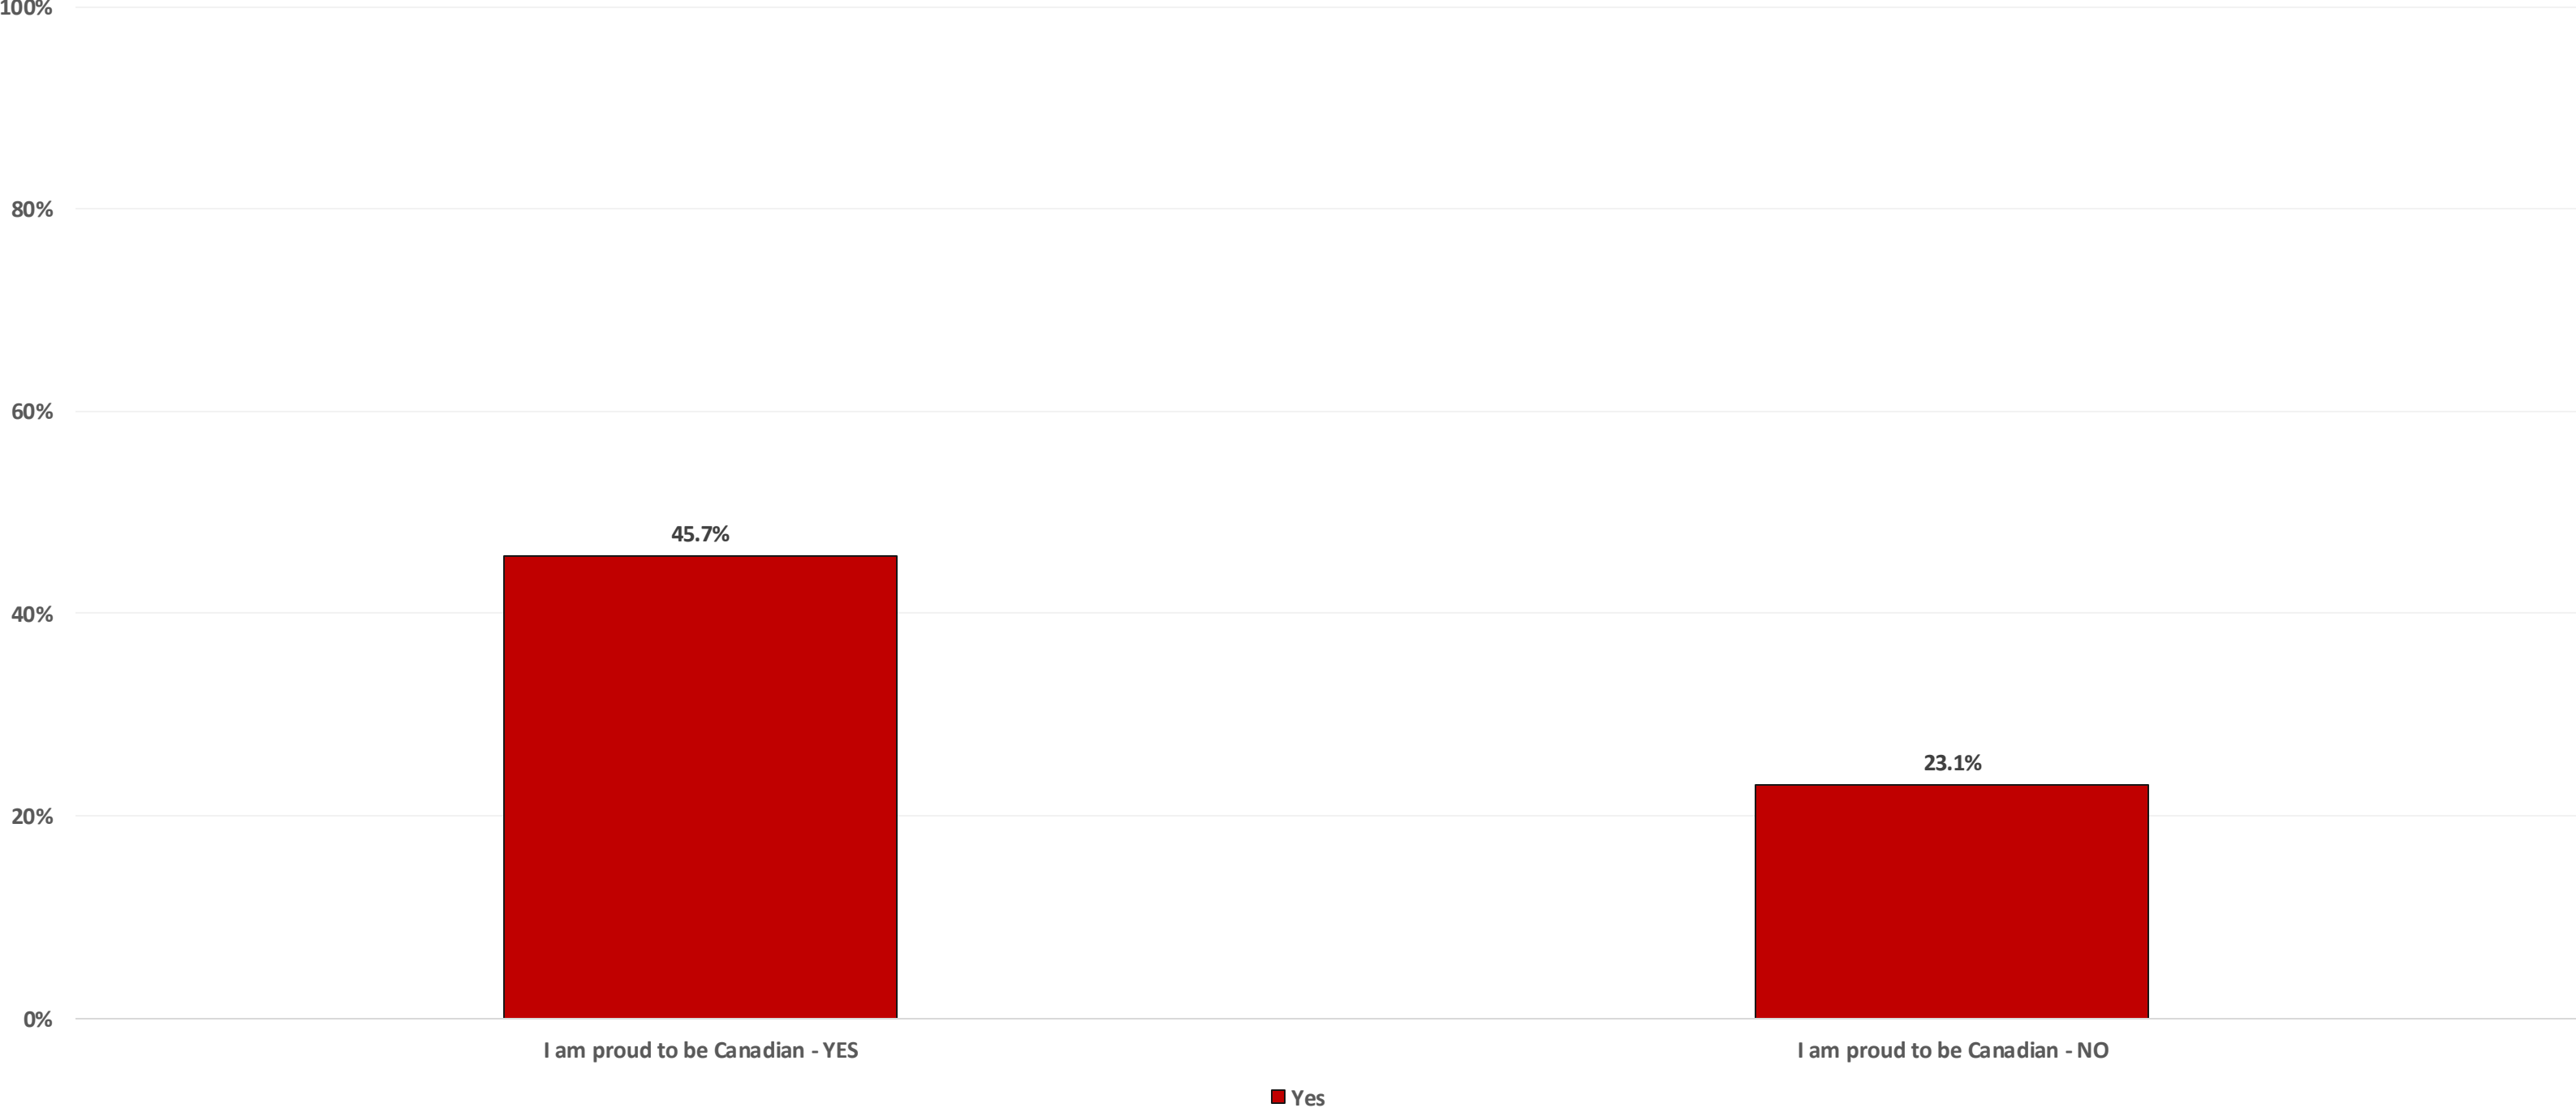

A majority of Canadians identifying as visible minority agree that Immigrants make an important contribution to Canadian Achievements in sports

Immigrants make an important contribution to Canadian achievements in sports

Amongst those saying they're proud to be Canadian a large plurality agree that Immigrants make an important contribution to Canadian Achievements in sports

Immigrants make an important contribution to Canadian achievements in sports

Contact

acs-metropolis.ca/acs
general@acs-aec.ca
850-1980 Sherbrook Street West,
Montreal, QC, H3H 1E8